

Airl is the only station I listen to at home, work and when driving. Airl is one of the few stations that plays music that sends a positive message to our community. If Airl is replaced I will not listen to or support any radio station, I will simply listen to music on CD.